AGENDA TOPIC #1:
PRESENTER	Stacy Pearsall
SUMMARY	Membership simplicity for Leg Health Evaluation. U of Missouri suspended his radiography program. Need to see other options. Q: Do you feel we need to continue this study> A: Yes. Keep it a scientific study. Request for a rating system. Someone untrained doing the rating? Q: Do you feel like members should have access to the medical reports? A: No. Or at disclosure of owner of horse only. Q: Do you feel complementary soundness surveys would be beneficial? A: Yes & No. X-rays eliminate any bias. Also collecting information about the horse's diet and exercise regimen. Paid service is the X-ray but the free service is a more general body/anatomy survey. To be done with a clinician unrelated to the horse/owner. Discussion: Take off the portions of the website pertaining to the medical examinations for the time being. Not all stud owners will want that revealed. The only research program actively looking at CPL is in Belgium. If EBRA wants to contribute information that will be helpful in curing or identifying testing the thing to do instead of building our own system would be to collaborate and share our information from our stateside horses. Pull from registry funds to listen in to Trekpaard-hosted CPL seminar. Sandi mentioned that UC Davis did a study on genetics. Olga mentioned there was a study in gypsy horses, open to adding Brabants to the study.
